PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE & PROFESSIONALISM

PARTICIPATION:

Daily class participation, class discussion of case book reading material and daily updates of current entertainment news.

ATTENDANCE:

The Student Rules and Regulations do not provide for excused absences under any circumstance(s).

Students are provided a certain number of absences per class, per semester that may be used/taken for any reason whatsoever. The allowed absences follow this formula: [number of credit hours x 2] – 1, (Example: 3(hrs.) x 2 = 6 – 1 = 5 allotted absences for a three hour course for the entire semester).

Once the allotted number of absences are exceeded, a student's grade may be reduced. To this affect, a list of each student's name and the number of absences is submitted to the Office of the Dean at the end of each semester. As such, a scale is applied in order to calculate the grade reduction so that the rule is implemented in a uniform manner.

PROFESSIONALISM:

CLASS DECORUM

This is a PROFESSIONAL Entertainment Law course. Course faculty strive to create a positive educational environment so that all students can achieve their potential. In turn, students are expected to conduct themselves with the utmost honor and integrity, and behave and perform as professionals-in-training, i.e., demonstrate respect for course instructors, their peers and themselves; participate in all course activities with purpose and a positive attitude; and abide by course and Thurgood Marshall School of Law policies.

COMMUNICATION

Students are expected to conduct communication, verbal, written, and electronic, in a professional manner. Instructors, co-instructors, and guests should be addressed with their professional title, (unless permission is given otherwise) and treated courteously. Address recipients of electronic communication professionally (e.g., Dear Dr. Johnson; write in a respectful tone; be professional; use proper grammar, punctuation, and spelling.) Finally, proofread your electronic messages before you hit the "Send" key.
