

Sergio Leal

Sergio Leal is an international anticorruption and white collar attorney based in Houston, Texas, with significant experience building compliance programs for publicly traded corporations.

As a member of Ericsson's Legal & Compliance team, Sergio is the Head of Compliance for North America and M&A activity worldwide, and he supports the company's efforts tied to its DOJ-appointed Monitorship under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA). Previously, Sergio was the Chief Compliance Officer of Layne Christensen Company, where he led the company to a successful FCPA settlement resolution, and after Layne, Sergio joined Bilfinger's Global Compliance Leadership Team and helped the company resolve its extended DOJ-appointed FCPA Monitorship.

Before his anticorruption compliance practice, Sergio was a civil and commercial litigator at private law firms, and he began his career at Baker Botts LLP.

In the community, Sergio is the Board Chair of Family Houston, is a Past President of the Hispanic Bar Association of Houston, and he sits of on the Economics Advisory Committee of The University of Texas at Austin. Sergio obtained his J.D. from Columbia Law School and received a B.A. in Economics from The University of Texas at Austin.

