CONGRATULATES GRADUATES

The TMSL Law Library staff extends its sincere Congratulations and Best Wishes to each graduating member of the Class of 2006.

As alumni of the law school, you will continue to have access to the law library. Your borrowing privileges will be limited to reserve books that can be used for two hours in the library. During the summer, you will also be able to check out library equipment as you study for the Bar Exam (e.g. Ethernet cards and headphones), and you will have printing privileges for one semester.

Before the celebration gets underway in earnest, please return all overdue library materials. The Law School Registrar will not certify your credentials for graduation until these outstanding obligations are cleared.

PROF. SPEARMAN TAKES THE CITING LECTURE ON THE ROAD

The Houston Area Law Librarians (HALL) hosted its annual one day seminar on March 22, 2006 on Library Skills, Sources and Solutions. Professor Spearman took her citing lecture on the road when she was asked to be a guest speaker for the seminar. She was the first speaker of the morning and energized the audience as she simplified the Bluebook and Texas Citation Form for all in attendance. Several firm librarians have requested that her presentation be presented at their firms this summer.

Karim Rand Presents

Tackling the Family Tree with Government Documents

Karim Rand our Government Documents Librarian spoke at the Texas Library Association pre-conference held on April 25, 2006 at the Texas Library Association.

Mr. Rand teamed up with Gay Cater, Documents Librarian at University of Houston-Clear Lake, and presented a program entitled Tackling the Family Tree with Government Documents. The program was filled with resource ideas and suggestions that helped attendees understand the vast array of government resources available for maximizing your genealogical research efforts.

LAW LIBRARY TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

Professor Spearman taught a three part class for Law Review Write-On Candidates on citing. The first part covered citing federal and state cases. Part II covered citing Texas cases, and Part III covered citing for law review, the use of Id. supra and other signals.

Career Services hosted a workshop in which Professor Spearman talked about "How to Succeed in Your Summer Clerkship - Part 1".

Topics included legal research, business attire, organizational culture, and more.

This program was held on Tuesday, April 4, 2006.

It includes a searchable database of U.S. Supreme Court cases from 1790 and selected federal and state cases from January 1, 1996. There is another collection of over 6,000 legal forms. Lexis has also organized more than 20,000 law-related Web Sites into 31 intuitive categories, and, if all else fails, LEXIS also offers pay-as-you-go access to all of its features. www.lexisone.com

Loislaw: Don't forget Loislaw has no restrictions on your summertime use.

No SUMMER RECESS FOR THE LAW LIBRARY

June, July and August are not the three best reasons to work in a library, if a professor's vacation interests you. Librarians work on summer projects that cannot be executed when patrons need full access to the library during the academic school year. In fact, the library will only be closed seven days this summer:

Monday, May 31st for Memorial Day; Saturday and Sunday, June 5 & 6 when school is not in session; Saturday, June 19th for Emancipation Holiday; Sunday, July 4th for Independence Day; and August 7 & 8 when school is not in session. Otherwise, the Law Library will be open the entire summer to serve your research, information and computing needs. Note that Library hours are modified when school is not in session, so check the summer schedule before venturing out late at night to do some research, pick up a print job or visit your favorite Library Staff person.

Whether you work as a summer associate for a law firm or as a research assistant for a professor, we are here to help you with your research needs.
