

Lorenzo Tolbert, 2L, has been selected to travel to Washington, D.C., as a Christian Legal Society Fellow!

Christian Legal Society's (CLS) Law School Fellows program is a week-long summer program designed for law students seeking a deeper understanding of the nature and sources of human law. The week will provide theological and philosophical tools for a mission-minded approach to legal study and law practice.

This year, CLS hand-selected 38 law students that will form a community of scholars from across the nation to engage in some of the most important topics discussed in law school. All travel, lodging, and expenses are covered by the program.

World-Class Faculty and Instruction

Fellows will engage with world-class professors and successful practitioners across a broad range of topics:

- Jurisprudential & Theological Foundations of Law
- The Life of Integrity as the Foundation for Moral Formation and Professional Identity
- The Doctrine of Vocation in the Context of Law Practice and Study
- Loving Our Neighbors in Ordinary Practice
- Mentoring and Fellowship
