How do I get someone out of jail?

- a. Personal bond
  - i. If a judge sets a personal bond an inmate will not have to pay and will be released with the condition to go to all the court dates.
  - ii. Harris County has a bail docket and people are assigned bail attorneys
    1. It is important that you contact the assigned attorney at (713) 274-6700 so you can give them your story and they will give it to the judge.
    2. Many factors are considered when setting a bond so move fast!
- b. Surety Bond
  - i. If a judge sets a surety bond, an amount of money must be paid or promised to get someone out of jail.
  - ii. You can pay that in full via money order at 700 N. San Jacinto Street, Houston, TX 77002.
  - iii. You can also use a bond company
    1. Bond company's charge a fee for there services and those fees range. Call around before you decide on a bonding company.
    2. A list of approved bonding companies can be found at <https://bailbond.harriscountytx.gov/>
