

The Earl Carl Institute for Legal & Social Policy, Inc., as A Month of Service (AMOS) partner, receives Silver Excalibur Award from the Public Relations Society of America – Houston Chapter for Outstanding Community Relations Campaign

On Thursday, June 23, 2022, The Earl Carl Institute for Legal & Social Policy, Inc. (Earl Carl Institute), a 501(c)(3) agency located on the Texas Southern University campus, was one of several organizations recently honored by the Public Relations Society of America - Houston Chapter (PRSA Houston), during an award ceremony held at The House of Blues in downtown Houston, for their participation in A Month of Service (AMOS). AMOS is a partnership program between the City of Houston Department of Neighborhoods, NRCDC Houston, Houston Volunteer Lawyers, Earl Carl Institute, Lone Star Legal Aid, Harris County Appraisal District, the Harris County Tax Office, and the Houston Bar Association. The partners provide informational seminars on a variety of topics to the community, with a focus on obtaining and maintaining generational wealth.

Lisa Nelsen, Attorney at Law received the Silver Excalibur Award from PRSA Houston for Outstanding Community Relations Campaign on behalf of The Earl Carl Institute, as AMOS partner. HCAD (Harris County Appraisal District) and AMOS: Partners in Public Service, received the highest award given in that category.

The annual Excalibur Awards program honors outstanding public relations professionals, programs, and campaigns with the presentation of Gold, Silver, and Bronze awards in various categories. Entries are judged by other chapters around the country. With more than four hundred active chapter members, PRSA Houston is one of the nation's largest and most active chapters of the Public Relations Society of America. The Houston chapter encourages professional development and growth through participation in educational programs, leadership roles and by promoting the highest standards of professional competence and ethics. "AMOS is a vital partnership of service organizations in Harris County that are working diligently to ensure more of our community are able to sustain and even grow generational wealth. We remain extremely proud to be a part of this effort," noted Earl Carl Institute Executive Director Sarah Guidry.
