GRADING

Midterm Exam: 15%

MPT Style Exam: TBD%

Final Exam: 85%

100% (as may be adjusted for class participation as described herein).

ACCOMMODATIONS

An “accommodation” is defined for these purposes as any student request for deviation from the time, date or circumstances under which schedule graded assignments are administered. Students must apply to and be granted WRITTEN accommodation by the DEAN’S OFFICE if he/she will not be in attendance for any graded assignment or test (e.g., graded quiz and midterm/final exams). Once granted, the professor must receive official confirmation from the DEAN’S OFFICE of any ALTERNATIVE DATES or accommodated changes that have been granted to the student. All requests for ACCOMMODATIONS must be handled by the Dean’s office rather than by the professor. ORAL CONVERSATIONS made with EITHER the professor or the DEAN’S OFFICE ARE NOT BINDING.

Students requesting accommodations may do so through the Office of Student Affairs.

PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE & PROFESSIONALISM

Participation

You are expected to act professionally in the classroom, which requires lively and courteous discussion and debate. This includes but is not limited to being prepared for class (you have already read and thought about the assigned materials for the day's class), participating in a civilized discussion, actively listening to the lecture and discussion, fairly considering the viewpoints of others, and allowing others to adequately express those viewpoints.

As class participation is a very important part of this course, I may, in my sole discretion: (i) raise a student's grade by up to one full letter grade for exceptional class participation; or (ii) lower a student's grade by one full letter grade for exceptionally poor class participation.

Poor class participation constitutes unprofessional or improper conduct, including, without limitation, the following:

Being unprepared when called on

Any in-class disruptive conduct

Attendance

You should be aware of the Attendance Policy in the Student Handbook. Attendance will be taken via a sign-in sheet at the beginning of each class.
