CBISBN: 978-0-314-18989-9; CBSUPPISBN: 978-0-314-19412-1
2. Texas Code of Criminal Procedure (2017, West 2017)
3. Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (2017)(see casebook)

COURSE OVERVIEW

1. This Advanced Criminal Law/Criminal Procedure Course is about enhancing basic lawyering skills of persons preparing to practice law generally, but most particularly it is detailed guidance on entry level practice of criminal law.

The skills most emphasized are CURRENCY, DEPTH, & INTEGRATION OF CRIMINAL SUBSTANTIVE, PROCEDURAL, AND EVIDENCE RULES, AND POLICIES.

This is a survey course. It covers sixteen major topics.

It takes a macro look at these subjects via the course book.

It takes two brief micro looks at many of these subjects via the current federal and Texas rules on the topic.

Conceptual organization and mastery of these topics is the first goal students should achieve in this course. Classes will focus on this organization and synthesis process. Attendance is taken and a grade reduction may result if you exceed the maximum number of absences. More importantly, substantial credit can be earned by class participation.

The course will provide you with the opportunity to refine the skills and knowledge you need to pass the multi-state bar examination section on criminal law and procedure, and will facilitate your passing the portion of the Texas and other state Bar Examination sections devoted to criminal procedure and evidence. The course will also provide you with the opportunity to acquire many of the foundation skills and knowledge required to competently practice criminal law.

BASIS OF GRADE

1. Class participation constitutes twenty percent of the grade in the course. An element of that participation will be presentations of key sequential points in the topics under discussion. A second element of that participation are bar exam exercises; many of which will reflect lawyer skills and issues tested on the Texas and other state bar examinations.

2. Thirty percent of the grade will be based on a take-home mid-term exam.
3. Fifty percent of the grade will be based upon your performance on a final examination.

COURSE AND CLASS OUTLINE

Criminal Procedure is the study of the law at work - how criminal cases are actually processed in the State and Federal Criminal Justice Systems. In this class, the primary focus of our study will be on how the criminal justice process operates under the national constitution, and in the Texas State and Federal Courts. When the information is provided by the casebook, you should also note the approach to a specific criminal process issue taken by most states.

Our goal is to examine each of the major steps in the processing of a criminal case. In both the state and the federal criminal justice systems, the courts and the legislatures must abide by the rules and protections provided by the United States Constitution as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court. Your first criminal procedure course should have provided you with insight with regard to the national constitution's fourth, fifth, and sixth amendment protections. We will not comprehensively retrace that ground. You should seek to discover for each key step in the processing of a criminal case, whether there is a national constitution provision that specifically regulates that step, the nature of that regulation, and the key United States Supreme Court cases providing that regulation.

Second, you should be aware that each state, including Texas, has its own constitution, and that a state constitution may provide protection to citizens being processed in the criminal justice system beyond that provided by the United States Constitution. Therefore, your second inquiry for each topic is whether a state constitutional provision provides greater protection to criminal defendants than that provided by the federal constitution.

Next for each key step in the processing of criminal cases in Texas and the Federal System, your inquiry should focus upon the statutory regulation of this step. We will focus our attention on the regulation of each key step in the criminal process by the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, and the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Next for each key step in the processing of a criminal case in Texas and the Federal System, your inquiry should focus upon the common law and statutory interpretation appellate case law. Of greatest significance in Texas are the opinions of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Finally, any relevant professional standards regulating the key step under study should be reviewed.
