MY TEACHING PHILOSOPHY:

I started teaching after practicing corporate tax law for five years because I wanted to make an impact on people's lives. I excelled in writing and recognized that critical thinking and writing were essential skills that all lawyers should possess. Twenty years later, I strive to create an environment in commercial law where all students can comprehend complex statutory concepts and develop bar readiness competencies.

My approach is to steward students through the development of skills and provide as many opportunities as possible to practice those skills. Providing feedback will hopefully give each of you an opportunity to be individually reflective of your growth. We are blessed with the top students from previous semesters who work with me as a team to make sure that each student is supported in their learning process.

Finally, I believe that students who have mastered "active learning" are the most successful. This means that having an ongoing dialogue about any issues, questions, or flat out confusion is crucial. Feel free to email me. My tutors and I will work diligently to provide timely responses.

I HAVE ESTABLISHED A TWEN PAGE FOR THIS COURSE. PLEASE REGISTER/ADD THE COURSE WITH AN ACCURATE EMAIL ADDRESS IMMEDIATELY.

I SEND EMAILS VIA TWEN REGULARLY SO CHECK YOUR EMAIL DAILY!!
IF YOU HAVE PROBLEMS WITH THIS PROCESS, PLEASE NOTIFY ME.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

NO LAPTOPS OR ANY CELL PHONE USE IN THE CLASSROOM!!

Researchers, Pam Mueller and Daniel Oppenheimer, demonstrated that students who write out their notes on paper actually learn more. Even though students who used laptops took more notes, studies have shown that those who wrote out their notes by hand had a stronger conceptual understanding and were more successful in applying and integrating the material than those who used took notes with their laptops.

(Taken from: A Learning Secret: Don't Take Notes with a Laptop. Students who used long-hand remembered more and had a deeper understanding of the material. By Cindi May)

NO PERMISSION TO LEAVE THE CLASSROOM AFTER LECTURE BEGINS

Certainly, extenuating circumstances and emergencies occur that warrant leaving the classroom during a 50 minute time period. When such circumstances occur, feel free to notify me in advance, or provide justification for leaving if an emergency occurs.

UNLESS YOU HAVE RECEIVED PERMISSION IN ADVANCE, ONCE YOU LEAVE THE CLASSROOM, YOU MAY NOT RE-ENTER WHILE CLASS IS IN SESSION.

TARDINESS NOT PERMITTED –NO CLASS ADMISSION

Tardiness will not be permitted. Tardiness is determined based on the classroom clock, or if none is present, then Professor's watch.

If it is later than five minutes after the hour, then you will not be permitted to enter the classroom. An absence results.

PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE & PROFESSIONALISM

Class Participation:

This course is a highly intensive, code- based course that requires your understanding and application of complex legal concepts as they are applied to anecdotal situations.

Accordingly, student participation and attentiveness is imperative.

Students will have ample opportunity to test their understanding of the Code rules of law through specially- constructed Problems in the Whaley textbook that will be addressed in every class.

Class Participation will be handled in the following manner: At the beginning of the semester, students will be called upon randomly using note cards with your names printed on them.

Attendance:

Attendance will be taken EVERY CLASS PERIOD through a Class Sign In Sheet. It is your responsibility to make sure your signature appears on the Sign-In Sheet.

Pursuant to the Course Methodology discussed in Part V above, students will be required to attend each class. Please contact me personally if you miss any class. Tardiness will not be permitted and will be considered an ABSENCE. Extenuating circumstances can be submitted to me via email or by hard copy within 24 hours of the event. See Student Rules of Matriculation for details on absences and grade reductions.

Professionalism:
