COURSE BOOKS & MATERIAL

MATERIALS:

Current Supp. to the same. (If available)

Recommended: Wright, Federal Courts, West. (Treatise)

Handouts by instructor.
A study of the procedure practice and procedure under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. This course focuses on: 1) the relationship between the federal judiciary and executive and legislative branches of the federal government; and 2) the relationship between the federal courts and the states. The topics covered include Congressional power to control federal court jurisdiction, constitutional and statutory limitations on subject-matter jurisdiction, sovereign and official immunity, abstention, equitable restraint, and other limitations, on the exercise of federal court jurisdiction, the Erie Doctrine, and federal common law. This course may be taken in the second or third year.
GRADING

There will be a comprehensive final examination. The instructor reserves the right to have a "mid-term" examination, with its relative weight to be announced at that time. Please note that the Instructor reserves the right to hold additional examinations as may be deemed necessary. Students will be notified of the value of these exams at said time.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodation will be provided and administered as dictated by the Dean’s office. If you require accommodation please provide approval and guidelines from the Dean’s office.

PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE & PROFESSIONALISM

Because verbal articulation of one's ideas is an essential commodity in the practice of law, class participation is encouraged. With such in mind both the quality and quantity of class participation will be evaluated and applied as an added value of up to two (2) points in determination of your final grade. Further to such, the Instructor may assign specific class sessions for students participation, which may be applied as up to 10% of the “Professor’s” final grade.

ATTENDANCE: Will be applied as required for a 3 hour class via a sign-in roll sheet disseminated at the commencement of class.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

All policies and procedures relative to this course are articulated in the Law School Student Rules. All such rules will be complied with by both students and the Instructor.
