COURSE DESCRIPTION & OBJECTIVE

DESCRIPTION:

This Class is designed to help students develop their legal analysis and writing skills beyond the first and second years writing experience. It consists of several parts—scholarly legal writing emphasizing the Analysis and Synthesis of Judicial Decisions, the Interpretation of Statutes and Constitutions, the skill of scholarly legal writing using clear, correct, concise, and complete language. The student will write two drafts of a work in progress research paper and a final paper. The final copy will comprise at least two-thirds of the final grade. Student Rules and Regulations 2017-2018, Article III, Section 2 (B) (1), p

OBJECTIVE:

The student will be able to effectively write a scholarly legal paper consisting of a minimum of 20 double spaced typewritten pages, a minimum of 75 endnotes, and a minimum of 15 primary legal authorities.

Goals:

1. Students will develop advanced foundational lawyering skills
2. Students will demonstrate the ability to competently apply core legal knowledge to resolve legal issues.
3. Students will demonstrate skills needed for legal practice.
4. Students will demonstrate professionalism
STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Research primary and secondary information; analyze and synthesize information; use inductive and deductive reasoning to craft arguments in support of resolving issues; develop a thesis stating a legal problem with a legal solution, and use all the aforementioned to write a 20 page scholarly legal paper using proper attributions and citations.

Outcome 1: Students will demonstrate the ability to think critically by accurately formulating, synthesizing, and applying principles of law to resolve a legal issue.

Outcome 2: Students will demonstrate the ability to write critically by organizing and expressing ideas with precision, clarity, logic, and economy.

Objective 3: Students will demonstrate the ability to conduct effective legal research.

Objective 4. Students will demonstrate the ability to reason by analogy and engage in deductive and inductive reasoning.

Objective 5. Students will identify a current legal problem, research related materials to find possible legal remedies, analyze possible solutions, formulate a legal means of resolving the problem while addressing the pros and cons of the resolution, and form a legal recommendation to correct the problem.

1. Identify the characteristics of a scholarly legal paper.
2. Apply those characteristics in writing his/her scholarly legal paper.
3. Correctly cite sources using the Blue Book to indicate the precise source of information.
4. Demonstrate competence in reading and analyzing opinions, statutes, and constitutions.
5. Use critical thinking to formulate new ideas to solve problems, or defend the status quo.
6. Form a thesis statement identifying a legal item of controversy, and proposing a legal remedy to resolve the controversy.
7. Construct a detailed sentence outline of a scholarly legal paper, using applicable sources within the outline.
8. Follow a specified template in preparing a final scholarly legal paper.
9. Construct a properly organized scholarly legal paper.
10. Use inductive and deductive reasoning to analyze research.
11. Evaluate and synthesize research to craft arguments in support of solutions to a problem and write a final scholarly legal paper.
12. Write two drafts of the scholarly legal paper and submit for critiques.
13. Use the critiques to revise or enhance writing the drafts and a final paper.
14. Deliver an oral presentation of his/her paper.
15. Submit a final version of his scholarly legal paper meeting all the above criteria.
