NOTE FROM THE DEAN:

This course is designed to help you develop the problem solving and analytical writing skills necessary for you to maximize your scores on the essay portion of the Texas Bar Examination. Formats presented in this course may be inconsistent with UBE jurisdictions.

BELOW ARE GENERAL ESSAY WRITING RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE TEXAS BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS

- Carefully read the question and the “call of the question,” (what the question asks you to do.)
- Pay attention to the facts presented without assuming additional facts.
- Include more than a mere conclusion when asked to explain the answer fully.
- Respond to the “call of the question” (what the question asks you to do) and stay on track.
- Practice writing in complete sentences and composing paragraphs.
- Organize your responses, and answer subparts, if any, in the order asked.
- Strive for clarity and good communication in writing.
- Avoid lengthy or unnecessary discussion of general or extraneous matters.

Texas examinees should read and be familiar with the Texas statutes and rules pertaining to the Texas essay and procedure and evidence exam-tested subjects. This is recommended regardless whether you have access to commercially-produced outlines or review materials.

COURSE DESCRIPTION & LEARNING OUTCOMES

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will teach you how to answer the types of essay questions that will appear on the bar exam. It will show you what the rules frequently tested by the examiners and the essential components of a high scoring answer. You will gain experience writing answers to actual bar essay questions and you will receive personalized feedback on your essays with instruction on how to improve your writing.

This course is not intended as a substitute for a commercial bar review course. This course is designed for students preparing to sit for the Texas Bar Examination. Students should take this course during the semester immediately preceding law school graduation and bar study. Specific emphasis will be given to the frequently tested areas of the Texas Bar Exam.

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The main objective of this course is to facilitate the development of competency required to pass the essay portion of the Texas Bar Exam.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

After completing this course with a passing grade, each student should be able to:

1. understand the format of the Texas Essay Exam and the legal rules most frequently tested on the exam;
2. construct essay answer templates by combining Texas statutes with previously tested subject matter; and
3. competently answer simulated exam questions under test conditions.

GRADING& CLASS FORMAT

Quizzes and Final Examination

There will be Seven (7) in-class essays, valued at 30 points each, designed to reinforce your understanding of the subject matter. Additionally, there will be a final examination containing 6 essay questions valued at 30 points for each essay.

Assessment

There will be 300 maximum points available for the course:

- 7 In-class essays valued at 30 points each for a total of 210 points.
- Final Examination that consists of 6 essay questions for a total of 190 points.

Grade scale

Grade	Cumulative Points

ACCOMMODATIONS

If you require special accommodations, please fill out the necessary forms with the Dean's office. Your application and documentation will remain confidential. Your prompt attention will allow the law school to accommodate you, as soon as it has been made aware of your situation.

Please see:

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

1. Mobile and cellular phones must be powered off during class times. (No vibrations, alarms, text or message signals, or flashing lights).
2. Please do not eat breakfast, lunch or heavy snacks in the classroom during class time. Food, gum and snacks may create an unwelcome smell and noise distraction during exams and lessons.
3. Please refrain from coming to class late or departing during class instruction. It is disruptive, and disrespectful to your instructor and classmates.
4. Permissible laptop usage is limited to writing and submitting essays.
5. When e-mailing your professor, be appropriate and professional in your communication. Begin the e-mail with a greeting and address me by title and surname. Use a subject line that clearly denotes the purpose/topic of your message. Close the message with your full name and contact information. Do not "reply" to a message sent from your instructor with an unrelated topic without first changing the subject line. I reserve the right to ignore non-compliant messages.

CLASS ATTENDANCE (Section 9 of TMSL Students Rules and Regulations)

Class attendance is required of all students. Excessive absence from classes may result in the following: (a) administrative withdrawal from the course; or (b) grade reduction of up to two letter grades in courses required to be taken in sequence (where a student may not be withdrawn from a class). Excessive absence is defined as any absence in excess of the permitted absence. (See below) “Absence” shall be defined as either a failure to attend class, or a failure to be present at the commencement of class.

PERMITTED NUMBER OF ABSENCES

Effective spring semester 2010, the rule governing the permitted number of student absences per course per semester shall be determined by multiplying the number Two (2) by the course credit hours and then subtracting the number one (1) from the result. Based on this formula, the following number of absences shall be adopted by faculty for all courses taught at the Thurgood Marshall School of Law effective spring semester, 2010

Type of Course	Permitted Number of Absences
Six semester hour course	11
Five semester hour course	9
Four semester hour course	7
Three semester hour course	5
Two semester hour course	3

This rule does not relieve the student of the responsibility to drop any course the student decides not to complete after registering for the course. (See Article III, Section 1, A (3) and Article III, Section 4, A (1).

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Participation in class discussions is required. Participation, for the purposes of the lectures, means having read the assigned materials before the scheduled class meeting. If you are concerned that you do not understand the concepts, please schedule an appointment during my office hours prior to the class meeting so that you are fully prepared.
