

TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY
THURGOOD MARSHALL SCHOOL OF LAW LIBRARY

ELECTRONIC DATABASE GUIDE

2015-2016

Version 2015.1

INTRODUCTION

The library intends this guide to be a workable electronic document with active links included. The TMSL Law Library also lists its available electronic resources on two web pages:

- <http://www.tsulaw.edu/library/Eresources.html> (This page can also be reached from the main TMSL web page by following the link to Library and then to Electronic Resources.)
- http://texsl.iii.com/screens/database\_1.html

The electronic resources offered by the TMSL Law Library fall into four types:

FREE RESOURCES:

First are the publicly available resources which are always free to anyone, anywhere, but which are useful enough that we provide links to them. These links can be used to access these resources regardless of where the user is located or who the user is.

GROUP LOGIN RESOURCES:

Second are those resources to which the library subscribes and which generally are not available to the public outside the library. Any resource of this type should be available from any computer in the law school or accessing the web via law school Wi-Fi. Additionally, most offer an option for off-campus remote access to students, faculty, and staff. In an effort to simplify remote access to these resources, the TMSL Law Library configured them for a single method of authentication.

To access databases available via remote access:

1. Go to the link titled "Remote Access" in this guide or at the end of the resource name on either of the web pages listed at the beginning of this guide.
2. Enter your patron username and library barcode number. You must obtain a barcode from the library's Circulation Desk during its operating hours before you can use remote access.
3. Contact the Technical Services Manager at 713-313-1005 if you are having trouble logging in remotely using your TMSL issued library barcode number.
4. If a resource is down or displaying an error, contact the Electronic Resources Librarian at 713-313-1107.

INDIVIDUAL LOGIN RESOURCES:

Third are those resources to which the library or the law school subscribes which require unique individual logins and passwords to access (EX: Westlaw, Lexis Advance, etc.). Access to these resources is generally limited to TMSL students, faculty, and staff. Users should already have received login information from the respective vendors.

LIMITED LICENSE RESOURCES:

Fourth are the resources which are only available on certain computers within the library (EX: ProDoc). You must be at those computers to access these resources.

The resources below are provided below in alphabetical order.
