August 2015- July 2016

Office of Student Affairs

If you have been diagnosed with a disability and need accommodations, please fill out the forms located under Student Affairs at www.tsulaw.edu.

Forms for a specific disability applications are at:
http://www.tsulaw.edu/student_affairs/accommodations.html

- Learning Disability
- Visual Disability
- Medical, Physical, or Mental Disability (NOT ADD/ADHD)
- Attention Deficit Disorder

If you discover a disability after entering law school, print the applicable form(s) above, and take to the applicable health care provider. The form lists with specificity, all that should be contained in the doctor’s report. Without the specific reports, a student will not be approved to receive accommodations.

At times a student might have a temporary disability that requires accommodations, such as a broken leg or arm. Please notify Dean Mouton as soon as you become aware of your temporary disability.
