

TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Thurgood Marshall School of Law

Ms. Caprice Wright, M.A.

Ms. Caprice Wright is elated to be selected as the new Assistant Director of Admissions for Thurgood Marshall School of Law (TMSL)! Prior to joining TMSL, Ms. Wright eagerly worked in higher education for over ten years. Throughout her career, Ms. Wright has served students in the areas of admissions, advising, teaching, student engagement, and retention. In-fact, some of her proudest achievements have been holistically advising students through their development, providing intentional recruitment tactics which led to record-breaking admissions, and attaining the highest ever retention and progression rates for her previous institution.

A true Louisiana native, Ms. Wright received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Louisiana at Monroe and her Master of Arts from Louisiana State University. Throughout college, she had the honor of becoming a Distinguished Scholar and joining notable organizations such as Psy Chi- the International Honor Society in Psychology and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Ms. Wright plans to continue her professional journey within higher education and hopes to return to school to achieve her Ph.D. in educational/ counseling psychology.

In her spare time, Ms. Wright enjoys spending time with family and friends, traveling, catching a good throwback movie or theater production, and going for long walks with her pet, Chino.