STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

This Immigration Law clinic presents students with an opportunity to acquire valuable and practical experience in the area of immigration law. The course assists in developing skills in the areas of client interviewing, investigative techniques, drafting of Immigration Law pleadings and forms, pre-trial motion practice, plea negotiations, courtroom presentation, and trial and oral advocacy skills. Students may be presented with the opportunity of a trial in the Immigration Law clinic as well. Students completing this course must demonstrate competency in handling cases from the initial client interview through court proceedings.

GRADING

The grading plan for the class is calculated as follows:

Community Service	10%
Case Assignments	20%
Court Brief for Relief	40%
Reflection Paper (1-3 pages)	20%
Class Participation	10%
TOTAL PERCENTAGE:	100%

ACCOMMODATIONS

If you require special accommodations, please fill out the necessary forms with the Dean's office. Your application and documentation will remain confidential. Your prompt attention will allow the law school to accommodate you, as soon as it has been made aware of your situation.

Please check the school website. www.tsulaw.edu

PARTICIPATION, ATTENDANCE & PROFESSIONALISM

CLASS ROOM MEETING TIMES & DAYS

Each student will be assigned to complete 2 “clinic hours” per week at the TMSL Legal Clinic.

Attendance is mandatory. If you are not able to attend Clinic, you must contact your supervising attorney or the Office Manager.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Every student is required to meet with Professor Nguyen once a week to discuss casework, questions, and the overall clinic class.

Furthermore, every student must complete a total of 252 hours of clinic work. This includes the mandatory 6 “clinic hours” at the TMSL Legal Clinic.

Finally, every student is required to meet with Professor Nguyen for an exit interview, which will serve as his or her final evaluation in the clinic.

Failure to comply with the policies above will result in dismissal from the Immigration Law Clinic Program and a drop from this course.
