

Dallas Hispanic Law Foundation Scholarships Bar Study Grants, and Judicial Internship Opportunities

Each year, the Dallas Hispanic Law Foundation awards scholarships to Hispanic 1Ls, 2Ls, and 3Ls in law school, and offers bar study grants to Hispanic graduates. The DHLF also sponsors judicial internships for 1L and 2L students with Dallas-area civil and criminal courts. We invite Hispanic law students at your law school to apply for these opportunities.

The applications opened on Sunday, December 15, 2024.

Scholarship & Bar Study Guidelines

The following Hispanic law students are eligible to apply for a scholarship: (i) incoming law students who have applied to begin their first (1L) year of law school in Fall 2025, (ii) current first-year (1L) law students who will begin their second (2L) year of law school in Fall 2025 and (iii) current second-year (2L) students who will begin their third and final (3L) year of law school in Fall 2025. The following students are eligible to apply for bar study grants: current third-year (3L) law students who will graduate by December 2025 and who plan to take the Texas state bar exam in 2025. Completed applications must be submitted by 11:59 PM CST on Wednesday, February 5, 2025.

Judicial Internship Guidelines

The Dallas Hispanic Law Foundation invites those law students who are in the process of completing their first or second-year classes to apply for the DHLF Judicial Internship Program. Judges from Dallas area civil and criminal courts will be participating. Applicants must have completed first-year law school courses from an accredited law school, including civil procedure, legal research, and legal writing courses. All students in Accredited Law Schools (including the UNT Dallas College of Law) are eligible to apply. The Foundation grants stipends to the students chosen to participate in the program. Completed applications must be submitted by 11:59 PM CST on Wednesday, February 5, 2025. Applicants must be willing to commit to a minimum of a four-week internship. Interns will receive a stipend of approximately $2,000.00 for the four weeks.

Please note that there are 2 separate applications for the Scholarship/Bar Study Grant and Judicial Internship Programs. If you are applying for both, please submit all application materials by the deadline. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

How to Apply

You can create your online profile and apply by accessing the following website for The Dallas Foundation, an organization that assists the DHLF with its awards programs: <https://www.grantinterface.com/Home/Logon?urlkey=dallasscholar>

You can also find the link at the following website, www.dallasfoundation.org, then click on “What We Do” then “Scholarship Funds” then “Dallas Hispanic Law Foundation Scholarship”.

Important Application Instructions

Please note that in order to apply, you will need to create an account by clicking “Create New Account”, then complete the registration form. Once you complete and submit all the required information, the system will automatically send you an email confirming your registration.

- Once logged in, click “APPLY” (at the top of your applicant dashboard). Use the following access codes to access the applications:
  - *Dallas Hispanic Law Foundation Internship Application: Access Code: LawIntern
  - *Dallas Hispanic Law Foundation Scholarship & Bar Study Grant Application: Access Code: LawScholar
- Once the application pops up, click the blue “APPLY” button to the right of the description.
- You should receive a confirmation email as soon as you submit your application.
- *If you wish to apply to both applications, you may copy your answers from your previously submitted application to save time. Just select the “APPLY” button, and then in the top right corner select “Copy Previous Answers” and your answers will be pulled in on any overlapping questions.

Students should contact scholarships@dallasfoundation.org with any questions.